Patron wins at the Property Awards 2015

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property backed investments, has won at the Property Awards 2015, organised by UK trade magazine, Property Week.

The Property Awards, which are now in their 20th year, celebrate and reward the individuals and companies who have made a significant positive impact on the UK property market. The Property Awards are widely regarded as the UK's leading and most prestigious awards dedicated to the property industry and the ceremony was attended by some of the sector's best known and most highly regarded personalities.

Keith Breslauer, Patron's managing director, picked up the award for 'Property Entrepreneur of the Year' at the event, which saw over 1,000 individuals from the real estate industry gather at the Grosvenor House Hotel on London's Park Lane.

Judges were impressed by Patron's consistently strong investment performance and involvement in a large number of high-profile opportunistic deals, as well as its no-nonsense approach, focus on ethical investing and commitment to charitable activities.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

"We are very pleased to be recognised by this award, which is testament to the exceptional work that the Patron team puts in, enabling us to identify the best opportunities and deliver continually high returns for our investors."
