Patron Capital shortlisted at the Pension Age Awards 2021

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted for Property Manager of the Year at the prestigious Pension Age Awards 2021.

The Property Manager of the Year award honours firms that have shown a true understanding of the UK, European and global property markets and have been able to translate that knowledge into risk-adjusted returns for the benefit of their pension client. Following several opportunistic acquisitions and highly profitable exits, along with the closure of Fund VI and the launch of the Women In Safe Homes fund, it has been an incredibly strong year for Patron Capital.

The Pensions Age Awards aim to reward both the pension schemes and the pension providers across the UK that have proved themselves worthy of recognition in these increasingly challenging economic times.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

“We are delighted to be shortlisted at the Pension Age Awards in the Property Manager of the Year category. Despite the effects of the pandemic in 2020, we remained flexible and innovative in our investment approach, adding value through creativity and proactive asset management. This was demonstrated in the final close of Fund VI, while our work with the Women in Safe Homes fund shows our continued effort to improve society and we’re looking forward to seeing what impact this has in 2021.”
