Patron Capital bolsters team with Senior Advisor Lt Gen. Sir David Capewell (Ret.)

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property backed investments, has appointed Lieutenant General Sir David Capewell (Ret.) as a Senior Advisor, applying his exceptional operations and leadership experience to contribute to the firm's long-term growth.

Specialising in high-performance senior executive development, board advisory and corporate resilience, the former commander will work across the business to help shape strategy to drive performance.

Having served in the UK military for 37 years, his last appointment was as the UK Commander Joint Operations responsible to the Government for the conduct of all UK Global and Allied Operations including the disengagement from Afghanistan, a £4 billion programme and the largest combined operation in a generation. With extensive field experience, he has commanded at all levels including NATO Rapid Reaction Corps, 3 Commando Brigade RM and 40 Commando RM.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, commented:

"Sir David has an invaluable perspective on the issues that shape our world and this holistic approach is crucial in helping us evolve in changing markets while preserving the firm's entrepreneurial spirit. This will help us in continuing to innovate, get the best from our team and deliver consistently superior returns to our investors."

Lt Gen. Sir David Capewell (Ret.), added:

"This is a hugely exciting opportunity. The Patron team already has a reputation for its entrepreneurialism, dynamism and comprehensive approach, so I have a great foundation to work from in helping the firm and its staff in their ongoing development."
