Patron Capital shortlisted at the European Pensions Awards 2021

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted for Property Manager of the Year at the prestigious European Pensions Awards 2021 for the fifth year in a row.

The Property Manager of the Year award recognises managers that have gone above and beyond in property investment, demonstrating innovation in their offering and consistency in their management of a diverse portfolio. Patron Capital's shortlisting demonstrates its continued success during the past year and its ability to successfully adapt to the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic.

The European Pensions Awards honour investment firms, consultancies and pension providers across Europe and promote best practices and service, whilst also providing recognition to those positively contributing to the sector. Finalists will be announced at the award ceremony on 20 October 2021.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

"The team has continued to show resilience and innovation throughout the past year despite the effects of the pandemic. This shortlisting highlights the team's ability to be creative and flexible when delivering the best for our partners and clients. Our hard work was seen in the final close of Fund VI and our continued work with the Women in Safe Homes fund, as we strive to improve society through impact investing. I look forward to the award ceremony in October and wish the best of luck to all other finalists."
