Patron Capital receives double shortlisting at Better Society Awards 2020

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted in both the Pro Bono Company of the Year and Partnership with a National Charity categories at the Better Society Awards 2020.

The Pro Bono Company of the Year award recognises companies that have given up their time and expertise freely for charitable good, honouring those that have demonstrated a commitment to helping others. As well as helping to organise and raise the profile of the inaugural Veteran Games, 2019 saw Patron support numerous charities, individuals and organisations, making its resources as a commercial business available to the wider community and for charitable good.

Patron was also shortlisted in the Partnership with a National Charity category for the Patron Armed Forces Initiative, which helps those whose life prospects have been impaired due to their military service achieve their potential. The initiative is largely executed through an ongoing partnership, established in 2010, between Patron Capital and The Royal Marines Charity (RMA-TRMC).

The Better Society Awards reward commercial companies that are helping to create a better, more equal, ethical and sustainable world. The winners will be announced at the awards ceremony on 14th May at the London Marriott Hotel in Grosvenor Square.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

“We are delighted to be shortlisted for the Better Society Awards for the fourth year in a row. At Patron, we believe that charitable giving and CSR is about more than writing a cheque and walking away: we strive to act as a partner to charities and individuals at a personal level. These shortlistings reflect the strength of this approach, proving that immersive involvement with charities is the best way to make a real difference and reap the greatest rewards.”
