Patron Capital shortlisted twice at the Charity Times Awards 2023

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted twice in the Corporate National Partnership Champion category and Corporate Social Responsibility Project of the Year at the Charity Times Awards 2023.

The Charity Times Awards return for their 24th Year, upholding their longstanding tradition of recognising excellence within the charity sector. These awards serve as a platform to celebrate and promote best practices, while also fostering continuous professional development within the sector. By acknowledging exemplary individuals and organisations, the awards contribute to raising the standards of charity management and elevating the profile of the sector as a whole.

These shortlisting's highlight Patron Capital's unwavering commitment to making a difference and further solidifies its position as a leading force in the charitable sector.

The winners will be announced on 20 September at an Awards Gala Dinner, taking place at London Marriott Hotel, Grosvenor Square.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

"We are incredibly honoured and humbled to be shortlisted for two prestigious Charity Times Awards. This recognition is a testament to the passion, dedication, and unwavering commitment of our team and supporters. We are grateful for the opportunity to be recognised among the industry's finest and remain steadfast in our mission to create a brighter future for all."
