CALA Group (Holdings) Ltd, has announced the appointments of Ian Sutcliffe as non-executive chairman and Tom Nicholson as non-executive director.

lan Sutcliffe has served as non-executive chairman of Sigma Capital Group since 2020. His background in the housebuilding industry includes his role as group chief executive of Countryside Properties Plc until 2020. He has also held leadership positions as COO for the UK arm of SECRO plc and UK chief executive of Taylor Wimpey plc.

Tom Nicholson has over 35 years experience in the housebuilding sector, having previously served as COO at Crest Nicholson Plc, divisional chairman at Linden Homes, as well as other positions at Galliford Try, Berkeley Homes and Trafalgar House.

The appointments follow the recent acquisition of Cala by Sixth Street and Patron Capital, completed on 31st October last year.

Kevin Whitaker, CEO of Cala Group, said, "I am delighted to welcome Ian and Tom to the Cala board. Their broad-ranging board experience and extensive leadership background in business and the housebuilding sector will be invaluable as we enter this next phase of growth."

Ian Sutcliffe added, "It is an exciting time to be joining Cala following the acquisition by Sixth Street and Patron Capital. Cala has a strong track record of sustainable growth, with a well-established reputation for high-quality homes and five-star customer service. I am looking forward to working with Kevin and the management team to further develop the business and deliver future success."
